DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Baltimore Gazette

THE IMPEACHMENT FARCE.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORTS.

The majority report of the Committee on the Judiciary which was submitted to the House of Representatives on Monday is, perhaps, the most important document that has ever challenged the attention of the people of this country. Its meaning should be deliberately weighed and its spirit dispassionately considered. It presents the inquiry whether Andrew Johnson, as President, "has been guilty of acts which were designed or calculated to overthrow or corrupt the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, and whether the said Andrew Johnson has been guilty of any act, or has conspired with others to do acts, which, in the contemplation of the Constitution, are high crimes and misdemeanors, requiring the interposition of the Constitutional powers of this House." The report is signed by five of the nine members of the Committee. It professes to present the results of "a comprehensive scrutiny running over a two years' administration of the affairs" of the Government. The charges preferred by the signers of this report against the President are thus generally and vaguely stated:

"It will be observed that the great salient point of accusation standing out in the foreground and challenging the attention of the country is usurpation of power, which involves, of course, a violation of law, and here it may be remarked that perhaps every great abuse, every flagrant departure from the well settled principles of the Government which has been brought home to its present Administration, whether discerning itself in special infractions of the statutes or in the profligate use of the high powers conferred by the Constitution on the President, or revealing itself more manifestly in the systematic attempt to seize upon its sovereignty and disengage and supersede the great council to which that sovereignty has been entrusted, in reference to the one great purpose of reconstructing the shattered governments of the Rebel States in accordance with his own wishes in the interest of the great criminals who carried them into rebellion, and in such a way as to deprive the people of the loyal States of all chances of indemnity for the past or security for the future, by pardoning their offences, restoring their lands, and bringing them back, their hearts unrepentant and their hands yet red with the blood of our people, into a condition where they could once more embarrass and defy, if not absolutely rule, the Government which they had vainly endeavored to destroy."

After descanting in the same loose and discursive way upon the condition of the country at the end of the "rebellion," the report proceeds to condemn the President for not having called Congress together on his accession to office; for having—Congress not being in session—declared that the State Governments in the South had been destroyed; for having as Commander-in-Chief, and as President, nominated Provisional Governors; for having appointed to office men "who were notoriously disqualified by reason of their participation in the rebellion from holding any office under this Government;" for having called Conventions to form State Constitutions and having accepted and ratified these Constitutions; for having authorized taxes to be collected; for having assumed to "proclaim the restoration" of the Southern States to the Union; for having "vetoed various bills passed by Congress for the pacification of and government of the States recently in rebellion;" for having pardoned deserters from the army for the sole purpose of enabling them to vote, in the hope that they would sustain his unconstitutional proceedings; for having, by his messages to the House of Representatives and by other private and public means, attempted to prevent the ratification of an amendment to the Constitution; for having made "official and other public declarations calculated and designed to impair the credit of the United States," and to encourage persons to "resist the reorganization of the rebel States, so-called, upon a republican basis;" for having given up railway property and cotton, and abandoned property of various kinds, and for having used the Federal troops "for the dispersion of a peaceful and lawful assembly of citizens of Louisiana." Such is, in brief, the sum and substance of what may be called the bill of impeachment against Andrew Johnson.—Of the arbitrary acts charged against him, most were done at the solicitation or with the concurrence of the men who now denounce him. The accusation that he has sought to exercise "more than kingly power," is preferred by the very party which, when it was supposed he would be its subservient agent, strove to clothe him with more absolute and despotic authority than is wielded by Czar or Sultan.

Two members of the Radical party submitted a report dissenting from the conclusions of the majority. Messrs. Wilson and Woodbridge show by reference to legal authorities that an impeachment cannot be supported by any act which falls short of an indictable crime or misdemeanor. English precedents are referred to at length, and copious extracts are made from the testimony of the committee, in order to refute the reasoning and conclusion of the majority.

They say: "Settle down upon the real evidence in the case, that which will establish, in view of the attending circumstances, a substantial crime, by making plain the elements which constitute it, and the case, in many respects, dwarfs into a political contest."

Acquitting the President, then, of all impeachable crimes and misdemeanors, they only condemn him for having "disappointed the hopes and expectations" of the political party which placed him in power. They regret "that he has been blind to the necessities of the times and the demands of a progressive civilization," and that he remains "enveloped in the darkness of the past and seems not to have detected the dawning brightness of the future."

The two Democratic members of the Committee, Messrs. Marshall and Eldridge, in their minority report concur with Messrs. Wilson and Woodbridge in their view of the evidence taken by the Committee. Speaking of its bearing upon the acts of the President, they say:

"We do not, however, believe the unbiased, the unprejudiced mind will be able in the testimony to discover any just or reasonable cause for condemning or impugning the motives by which he was actuated. Indeed, differing with him in opinion, as we have, as to the policy and propriety of many things he has done, and many more he has left undone, we feel compelled to declare that the proofs before us will not warrant a charge that he was in any instance controlled by motives, other than those pure and patriotic."

Messrs. Marshall and Eldridge insist that the whole movement against Mr. Johnson is a political impeachment, and speak thus of some of its features:

"With all due respect to the majority of the Committee, we cannot regard the charges made against the President as a serious attempt to procure his impeachment. Without dwelling upon their utter failure to point to the commission of a single act that is recognized by the laws of our country as a high crime or misdemeanor, the inconsistency of the majority cannot fail to challenge the attention of the country. Acts for which Mr. Lincoln was clamorously applauded are deemed high crimes in Mr. Johnson. For every act so gravely condemned, the President had the sanction and approval of his Cabinet, and yet, while he is arraigned before the world as a criminal of the deepest dye, they are not only not impeached, but are recognized as special favorites of the party for impeachment. The latter have even gone so far as to unite in the passage of an extraordinary and unprecedented law to prevent the President from removing these officers from the places which they hold. Mr. Stanton, the late Secretary of War, gave his emphatic approval of the acts for which the President is arraigned, and yet the ex-Secretary is a favorite and popular martyr, and the whole country is vexed with clamors for his restoration to power and place. The President is held criminally responsible for the acts of subordinates of which he did not even have the slightest notice or knowledge, and yet those bringing him to trial enact a statute depriving him of all control over all these same subordinates, and they are deemed worthy of the especial protection of Congress. The President has used every means within his power to bring the great State prisoner, Jefferson Davis, to a speedy trial, and yet he has been denounced throughout the land for procrastinating and preventing the trial, while the judges and prosecuting officers, having the entire control of the matter, have been deemed worthy of the most honored plaudits."

On the impeachment case as now presented to the country, it is not difficult to anticipate the verdict of every honest and intelligent man. That Mr. Johnson and his advisers have, since the conclusion of the war, assumed powers and committed acts not warranted by the Constitution or in direct violation thereof, is not to be denied. How far all these acts are to be excused in view of the extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances in which he found himself and the country, we leave to be enlarged upon by those who argue that political measures are justified by the political necessities of the times. That all the acts for which Mr. Johnson is arraigned were infringements upon the Constitution is preposterously false, and it is ridiculous and absurd to pretend that the testimony brought forward in support of the majority report affords a shadow of foundation for the accusation that the President has, since the close of the war, been endeavoring to usurp the legitimate powers of Congress, or to "overthrow or corrupt the Government of the United States." We cannot undertake at this moment to elaborate these points. Nor do we think the intelligent people of the country will care to discuss them, for their attention is riveted on the one dark and appalling which forms the background to this impeachment drama. They know that the whole proceeding is a mockery and a sham, conceived in iniquity and supported by trickery and fraud. They know that for eighteen months past the President has been struggling for the restoration of the Union and the Constitution, and that Congress has been persistently adopting measure after measure which rendered the rehabilitation of the Union or the Constitution impossible. It is obvious to all men, that to secure a further lease of power the Radical party has sacrificed the prosperity of the South and the interests of its white population, and to that same end it is ready to sacrifice the North, and all that is left there of Constitutional law and civil liberty.—The whole impeachment business means revolution—a revolution which is to depose Mr. Johnson and to seat Benjamin Wade in the Presidential Chair—and to confirm the political ascendancy of the Radical party at the Presidential election through the agency of negro suffrage in the South and military terrorism and Treasury influences in the North. This is the terrible meaning of this impeachment proceeding, and the people of the country, leaving all minor questions for the time unheeded, should give it instant and earnest consideration.

To the Bond Holders of the North Carolina Rail Road Company.

Office N. C. Railroad Company,
COMPANY SHOPS, N. C.,
Nov. 9th, 1867.

MOST OF YOU HAVING AGREED WITH MY predecessor, Mr. Webb to take new for your old bonds, I take this method of informing you we are now ready for the exchange.

To capitalists I would say, we will sell $300,000 of eight per cent. coupon bonds, secured by mortgage on the Road, and payable in ten, fifteen, or twenty years, as the purchaser may desire, interest payable semi-annually.

The debt of the Company is about $700,000.—Bonds to fund this debt will be issued.

The property mortgaged to secure the payment of these bonds is worth in currency seven millions of dollars. There can be no better security.

The bonds will be sold only at par.

Bond Holders and other Creditors of the City of Wilmington, N. C.

THE UNDERSIGNED, AS CHAIRMAN of the Finance Committee of the City of Wilmington, desires information in detail as to the amount and character of the debt of the said city, which was contracted prior to 1st of January, 1866.—Holders of Bonds of the city are requested to communicate with the undersigned, stating the amount, the date, when issued, and when payable, and the rate of interest of the several bonds held. Also, the purpose (as appears by the face of the same) for which the respective bonds held were issued, and the number of coupons for interests matured and remaining unpaid.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh. Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c., &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or South-bound, VIA PETERSBURG.

☞ Freight handled in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.

The following paper has been handed us for publication. It is the result of patient and thorough consultation among many of our ablest and most influential gentlemen, who have been in attendance upon the U. S. Circuit Court.

We have no doubt that the plan suggested, and the arrangements adopted, will meet with the hearty approval of all the Conservatives of the State:

"There being a very large number of persons, and some from nearly every part of the State, in Raleigh during the present week, it was thought well to have an interchange of views among Conservatives in respect to the condition of political affairs.

Accordingly, an informal meeting was held for this purpose; the result of which was to recommend that the Convention of the Constitutional Union party, proposed for the 11th. of December, shall be postponed to such time and place as may hereafter be fixed upon. And, in order to bring about as much unanimity as possible, as well as secure certainty as to time and place, a State Executive Committee was appointed to take charge of this and other matters within the usual scope of the authority of such Committees, until the meeting of the Convention.

The Committee consists of the following gentlemen:

"REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENTS."

Was there ever, in the annals of American politics, a more disgraceful, hypocritical and wicked pretence, than that put forward by the Radical party, that the power for reconstructing the Southern States, on the part of Congress, is based upon the idea that it is bound by the Constitution to guarantee to the States republican governments? This plea is made the more ridiculous, in that it is offered as an excuse for violating the Constitution palpably and directly, when Congress assumes to interfere with the question of suffrage in the States.

The able article of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, which we have published, shows most conclusively that Congress is not empowered by the Constitution to give to any State a Constitution; and we, therefore, conclude that, by consequence, all the results of Congressional Reconstruction, having been forced upon the people of the States, without their voluntary consent, must be revolutionary and outside of the Constitution, and hence not binding a moment after the Constitution of the United States exerts its full power over the States.

What constitutes "a republican form of government," within the meaning of the Constitution, must be determined by the character of the State government already then in existence, and by its own republican character. Such governments could not cease to be "republican" ever, while maintaining the same characteristics. Their character must be altered, before they can be accused of being anti-republican. But, in this respect, all the States maintain their ancient characteristics. If there be any change, it must be in the Congress, which proposes to make "republican" what has been always esteemed "republican" since the foundation of the government. Congress has, in truth, become so infatuated with a new species of "republicanism," unknown to the Constitution and to the fathers of the Republic, that it desires to force its own enthusiasm and fanaticism upon the entire Union.

But its idea that a State cannot be "republican," when the blacks are not enfranchised, while at the same time it is ready to disfranchise so many whites, shows the hollow-heartedness and hypocrisy of the pretence. Being a few crazy fanatics, who belong to the Republican party, and who honestly claim the equality of races, or at least of the black with the white race, the great body of Radicals only make it a plank in their platform as the sole hope left the party for existence and success in the Presidential election.

UNIVERSAL NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The investiture of every male negro, twenty one years of age, in the United States, who has resided in any given State a prescribed term of months, with the elective franchise, without any moral qualification whatever, is the gravest question ever submitted to the American people. So radical a departure, hastily inaugurated, from the laws, customs and principles of all civilized nations, must have for its support, in order to its justification, not simply reasons founded in caprice, or based upon a fallacy, or a mere sentiment, but reasons, strong and irrefragable, founded either in the nature and fitness of things, or in the absolute necessities of society, or in the moral rectitude of the thing itself, amounting to a positive command from God himself. The necessity for the existence of a reason or reasons, which amount to absolute demonstration, becomes the more imperious, especially, when so radical a change in the constitution of society is about to be forced upon an unwilling people, by the power of the sword. Such is the real character of the question, as now presented to the hitherto governing peoples of the Southern States.

The question is not only a grave one, but a new and anomalous one. No civilized nation of the world has ever before been called upon to decide such a question.—Strange indeed, that even the incubation of the idea, much less an actual procedure to carry it out, has not filled Christendom with wonder, and called forth its contempt and ridicule.

The proposition to enfranchise all male negroes, twenty one years of age, unqualifiedly, when submitted squarely as a matter of choice to the people of the Northern States, has in every instance been rejected by them with scorn. If the thing be right in itself, if it be demanded as a reasonable thing, if it be necessary to the progress or perfectibility of society, or to the preservation of the Union, or to the ultimate homogeneousness, harmony or prosperity or glory of the nation, is it likely that the Northern people could not see it? Are they so obtuse, or are they so unphilanthropic, or so blind to the true interests of the nation, that they cannot see the necessity of it?—Or are they too disloyal, or too wicked, or too adverse to the harmony of the government, that they, the Northern people, will not grant it? Ridiculous!

Why should not the Northern people grant so small a thing? The number of negroes in those States is so small, that they are but as a drop in the bucket, compared with the whites. Their number is so meagre and constantly decreasing, that no possible danger could arise of negro supremacy.—The Northern people have no fears of the negro ever acquiring political power in those States. Nor can it be a mere prejudice of color or of previous condition. Most of the negroes in those States have been free thirty, fifty and seventy years. Entire generations have passed away since they became free. They are exempt from the peculiar degradations of slavery. They have lived where schools and churches and all the appliances of civilization abound, and yet the Northern people say, the negroes, as a race, are incapable of bearing equally with the whites the responsibilities of government. Are they mistaken, or are they too ignorant or too wicked or too disloyal to see otherwise? Is it a mere prejudice of color or caste, or condition? It cannot be. There the negro must now be free from the contaminations of slavery. And yet they are still negroes.

It is not a prejudice, but an actual knowledge, that negroes, as a race, not all negroes to be sure, but as a general rule, wherever found, in whatever clime, have certain accompaniments, habitudes and idiosyncrasies, which unfit them for the higher duties of civilization, and which render them unequal to the white race, as a governing people, and unprepared to discharge and appreciate the higher franchises of civil government.

The Northern people do not fear, because of the small number of blacks among them, the necessary and degrading contaminations of social life among them, which must infallibly result from conferring upon the black race political equality. Were they to allow them to vote, there is no danger of filling their legislative halls with negroes, or destroying the rectitude and reliability of their jury-boxes, or filling their offices of honor and profit with the black race. Yet they are determined to bar the few negroes among them from these franchises, for the reason, that every man's common sense must tell him, that where all barriers to negro equality in political affairs are thrown down, the step to social equality and amalgamation and miscegenation is a short one! Such a result is as certain, however, as that the sun shines, in the South, where the negro race is so numerous, and where by force of superior numbers political supremacy is an absolute sequence of political equality. We predict, that, in less than five years from the present day, in the South, if universal negro suffrage is forced upon our people, negro supremacy in political affairs will necessarily follow, and quick upon its heels social equality and amalgamation will come, commencing among that class of whites, who now so readily amalgamate with them in political association and fellowship, and who really find no repulsion in their feelings to drink, or eat, or associate with them in any way, so as to secure them to the interests of their party. Already, before this great crime against Anglo Saxon liberty and the white blood of the sons and daughters of Japhet has been consummated, more cases of matrimonial alliance with the sons and daughters of Ham have been formed, than were ever known before.

But the subject is cumulative, and we must reserve the full application of this momentous question to the Southern States for future consideration.

Holden says: "We have carried more than two-thirds the members of the convention." Does he mean we, the white men, or we, the negroes?—Danville Times.

THE JURISDICTION OF MILITARY COMMISSIONS UNDER THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS.

Gen. Canby has just made an important ruling in a case of some interest to our people, by which he sets aside the sentence of a Military Commission held in this city, and ordered by Gen. Sickles for the revision of a case, which had been tried by the civil Courts.

The facts of the case, we learn, are these: Two negro men, in the County of Granville, some time pending the war, were charged with committing a rape on a respectable woman, the wife of a Confederate soldier, during his absence. They were arrested and committed for trial. They were duly tried before the Superior Court in Granville, convicted and sentenced to be hung. One of the culprits was hung at the time appointed,—Henderson Cooper, the other party, having previously effected his escape to Washington City or to Alexandria or Georgetown. In 1866, the Sheriff of Granville, learning that Cooper was in Virginia, obtained from Gov. Worth a requisition upon the Governor of Virginia, who ordered his arrest and delivery to the Sheriff. He was brought back to Granville, and, at the succeeding term of the Superior Court, Judge Warren presiding, his case was brought up and sentence of death was again pronounced upon him. From representations made to the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau of injustice to the negro, Cooper, under an order from Gen. Sickles, was taken into the custody of the military and tried by a Commission and again condemned. It will be seen that Gen. Canby, for the reasons below given, reverses the sentence and remands the man back for a new trial before the Civil tribunals.

We presume that no lawyer or jurist will agree with Gen. Canby, or see any force in the reasons which he gives for his ruling.—It is plain that a Military Commission had no jurisdiction in the case, but the jurisdiction of the Court, which tried the negro in the first instance, as well as the jurisdiction of the Court which re-sentenced him after his arrest, will not be called in question by legal men.

We append the following extract from Gen. Canby's order:

"It appears that the prisoner, Henderson Cooper, colored, was tried before the Superior Court of Granville County, N. C., in March, 1865, for rape, convicted, and sentenced to be hanged on the 24th of the same month. Escaping on the 19th, he made his way to Washington, D. C., where he remained until October, 1866, when he was, without process, brought back by the Sheriff of Granville County and again committed to jail. At the spring term, in 1867, he was, without further trial, re-sentenced to be hanged April 5th, 1867. Thereupon the proceedings of the State Court were annulled by General Sickles, commanding this District, and the trial of the prisoner by military Commission ordered. Of such trial the record now comes in for review.

The material issue involved is a question of public rather than of municipal law. Crime is local in its character, and is cognizable and punishable by the tribunals of the territory in which it is committed; and if the sentence passed upon the prisoner had been executed as originally appointed, its validity could not now be questioned. But before the day appointed for its execution the prisoner escaped from the custody of the court, and took refuge in what was then hostile territory, and where no process of the court could reach him. During his continued evasion, the war for the suppression of the rebellion was ended; the court by which he was tried, convicted, and sentenced passed out of existence with the rebellion that deprived the people of the State of North Carolina of all civil government." Under the President's proclamation of the 29th. of April, 1865, a provisional government was established, and courts were organized, invested with full power to try and punish crime. After the establishment of the Superior Court of Granville county, the prisoner was arrested and brought within its jurisdiction; but it was not competent for this court to affirm the sentence of a hostile court, nor by ratification confer validity upon proceedings had under a hostile government, and its action in re-sentencing the prisoner without trial, and appointing a day for the execution of that sentence, was properly annulled and set aside. The prisoner was entitled to a new trial upon a new presentment or indictment under the new sovereignty.

It was an error to refer this case to a military commission. The crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the pretended sovereignty that then controlled the greater part of the territory of North Carolina, and it was not until a later period that the military occupation by the national authority was extended to the place at which the crime was committed. The jurisdiction of military tribunals is determined and limited by the period and territorial extent of the military occupation. It does not relate back to a period anterior to the date of that occupation, nor extend beyond its territorial limits except in the case of known and recognized violations of the laws and usages of war, cognizable as such under the common law of nations.

This case is not of that class, and the proceedings and sentence of the Military Commission are disapproved and annulled, and the prisoner will be remanded to the custody of the civil authorities for trial under a new presentment or indictment."

JUDGE FOWLE RESIGNED.

We learn that his Honor, Judge Fowle, in compliance with a determination formed some time since, several days ago sent in his resignation as Judge of the Superior Court. Judge Fowle has shown himself an able, prompt, efficient and upright Judge, and all will regret the necessity for his determination to leave the Bench. Under the present regime, it is almost impossible to obtain in the State men of sufficient ability and character to serve in that high and important position. We cannot even imagine who will be selected to fill the vacancy.

IMPEACHMENT.—The probable action of the House on the impeachment question next week is the subject of considerable speculation at the Capitol to-day. The friends of the movement think they can carry it through by a small majority. Its opponents, however, are confident of defeating it by a decisive vote whenever the question shall be taken. The opinion is also expressed in certain quarters that the final vote will be delayed several months—if taken at all.—Wash. Cor. 27th.

Holden speaks of the Radical victory in North Carolina as "splendid and imposing." It is more imposing than splendid.—Danville Times.

THE IMPEACHMENT FARCE.

We find that the matter pertaining to the Impeachment project is so voluminous, that it will be impossible to spread it in detail before the readers of the Sentinel. We place on our first page, however, an editorial abstract, copied from the Baltimore Gazette, of the main points embraced in the diverse reports of the Committee.

Nor can we find any space for the immense accumulation of testimony that has been presented. It is sufficient to say, in perfect candor and truthfulness, that in all the multifarious investigations of the Committee there has been found nothing whatever to justify the presentation of the articles of Impeachment.

Gen. Grant's testimony throws some light on the early stages of reconstruction as commenced by President Johnson, and discloses Gen. Grant's full concurrence in the steps then taken. He testifies to the complete identity of the policy of President Johnson and that of Mr. Lincoln. He states that, previous to the assassination, the re-establishment of State governments was engaging the attention of Mr. Lincoln, who had already matured and sketched out his plan, of which President Johnson's was a simple continuation. General Grant avers that, on two different occasions previous to Mr. Lincoln's death, he listened to the reading of a paper in which the fated President had drawn up his scheme of reconstruction, and that this paper was precisely the same in substance, and, according to the best of his recollection, identical in words with President Johnson's North Carolina proclamation, which was the model and pattern of all the rehabilitated State governments. Could there be a completer justification, from a Republican standpoint, of all the steps taken by Mr. Johnson up to the meeting of Congress in December, 1865?

The general public will have a higher opinion of General Grant's good sense and firmness than they ever had before, after reading his evidence before the Judiciary. His persistent and dogged reiteration of his opinion that neither General Lee nor any other soldier could be tried for treason was evidently distasteful to the committee.

We repeat the opinion we have heretofore expressed, that the Radical Congress will not dare to proceed with this matter.—We subjoin below a few of the opinions of the leading Press on the subject:

From the National Intelligencer.

"We bespeak such thunders of indignation from the people—the outraged constituencies of the faction of impeachment in Congress—that they will make no further movement in the matter save to consign it to the tomb of the Capulets. If men have the patience, they may look through the report of the majority of the Judiciary Committee, from end to end, and find nothing that has not been brought into the political canvass of the last year, and been part and parcel of the great thought that has sent nearly the whole horde of wolves that have prowled about the President, seeking his blood, howling to their lairs. The impeachers of the President have been impeached by the people upon the very issues made by the majority of the Committee.

We cannot for a moment imagine that the disgraceful thing is to go farther. We would fain let it and its authors sleep in the shade of deepest dishonor. The House cannot for a day, nor an hour, forego the high duties that the people call upon them to fulfill, by way of affording relief from their pecuniary distresses, which have become too grievous to be borne, through the follies and wrongs of the past. They are called upon to retrace their steps, and once more move under the ægis of the Constitution. Will the House impose upon the Senate the duty, which must be so disgusting to it—the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court presiding, before the ministers of foreign nations, before the world and God above—of going through the tedious business of deciding upon one and several of the matters that constitute the subject of the proposed impeachment of the President, and which now provoke the scorn and derision of all the people?"

The New York Times (Republican) says:

"The country has not much faith in the judgment of many of the leading spirits of the House, but it is not prepared to believe that the dominant party is intent upon committing suicide.

The Tribune (Radical) concludes its article thus:

"We have not yet seen evidence enough to make up our mind in favor of impeachment, and we shall wait and see what new evidence has been obtained."

The New York Sun (Republican) says:

"The President has done some unwise, some objectionable, and some foolish things in the course of his administration; but that he has done anything to warrant his removal is not believed by any thoughtful and impartial person."

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Brooks, in the Circuit Court of the United States, on yesterday, held that the Military or Reconstruction Acts of Congress do not embrace the Federal Civil Courts; and, therefore, a trial before a Military Commission for an offence against the laws of the United States, where their Courts have exclusive jurisdiction, was no defence in the Circuit Court to a prosecution for the same offence. And his Honor declared with emphasis, that in all cases where the military have seized and undertook to try by such Commission a party charged with such criminal offence against the United States, he would grant the writ of habeas corpus, and discharge the party from military arrest for such offence.

SENTENCED.—In another column we publish the official order from the Headquarters of the 2d Military District, approving the finding and sentence of the Military Commission at Raleigh, in the case of Wm. J. Tolar, Thos. Powers, and Dan'l Watkins, and commuting the sentence of death to imprisonment and hard labor for fifteen years at Fort Macon, N. C.

The condemnation of these men will fill the hearts of our people with the deepest regret and the most heartfelt commiseration, and the greatest anxiety will be felt for the intervention of the President and the exercise of his clemency in their behalf. Should no human hand be outstretched to aid them, may He whose omnipotence encircleth the universe, and whose goodness is over all, be with them in the days of their trial and suffering, and arm them with fortitude and resignation. May He be ever present with the sorrowing wife, giving comfort where the hand of man smites; and with the children, upholding them and sustaining, where human destiny makes them fatherless!—Fayetteville News.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 28th., 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Your paper of the 27th. inst. contains a card from T. F. Lee, Chairman of the 2nd. Board of Registration, which, I suppose, he intended as a reply to my card of the 23rd. inst. Mr. Lee, in the course of his remarks, says that my remarks must have reference to the members of the Board with which I served. His conclusion was right, so far as he is concerned, but, in regard to Wm. Edwards, the colored member of the Board, he was wrong. Edwards advocated and defended the principles of the Radical party; that, I admit; but he did it in a manner which was in conformity with the laws. I deny, therefore, that my remarks had reference to members of the Board; but that it had reference to one member, I am not inclined to contradict, and that member is the gentleman whose name appears at the bottom of the card first above mentioned.

In regard to the statements mentioned in Mr. Lee's card about the election, taxes, expenses of reconstruction, etc., I cannot suppose, for a moment, that he designed to charge me with the promulgation of them, or any other statements calculated to mislead the people, black or white.

Mr. Lee says, very truly, that I "is much as accused him of partiality in his appointments of Inspectors of Election; but that is not the point upon which I base my charge of his having turned against law and justice. For this reason: The gentlemen whom he appointed were just as well qualified to fill the position as the gentlemen whose names I suggested, and vice versa. True, the gentlemen of my choice may not have been members of the Union League, because I did not consider that as any qualification.

Now, Messrs. Editors, as I have been called upon to ventilate, here are a few facts which I can prove, if necessary, and which will, when read by my friend Lee, cause him to think that the "small fry" spoken of in the Standard has a retentive memory, if no other qualification.

Did he not, on several occasions, in his official capacity of a Registrar, make political speeches? Was not that in defiance of law?—for, in my humble opinion, the orders of the Military Commanders are law.

Did he not, in those political harangues, among other things say, to use his own words, "that he didn't know how in h—l a man could be a Union man unless he belonged to the Radical party?" Was not that doing his utmost to ensure the success of the Radical ticket?

Did he not, at the final revision of the registration lists, without consulting either of the other two members of the Board, summon one man, and only one, Calvin J. Rogers, to challenge the names on the lists? Was not that in defiance of law and justice? For I believe the law says there shall be two challengers, and the challenge shall be made publicly.

When the writer of this article protested publicly against this most unjust and unlawful proceeding, and requested time to obtain the presence of other gentlemen, did not he, T. F. Lee, the self-appointed Chairman of the Board, accuse him (the writer, an ex-Union soldier) of being in league with rebels, by saying to him: "Go! and get all the rebels you want."

Can he deny that, in the case of Mr. Buckner Nipper, there was an attempt at fraud?

Can he deny that, before the arrival of the gentlemen whom the writer had summoned, there was a man present who accused Mr. Nipper of certain acts which, if true, would have disfranchised him?

Can he deny the fact that the writer of this did particularly ask this man, if he was ready to swear to the truth of his statement, and that the answer was in the affirmative?

And, lastly, can he deny, that after the arrival of the gentlemen whom the writer had summoned, that this fellow who was so ready to swear away the rights of his fellow man, was not heard from, though Mr. Nipper's case was discussed and examined at length and this fellow's statement proven to have been an entire fabrication?

The writer would give this fellow's name, did he know it. Perhaps T. F. Lee, ex-member of the Massachusetts Legislature, (Oh! ye Gods and little fishes!) and would-be Sheriff of Wake County, will oblige the public by so doing.

Yours respectfully,
ALBERT MAGNIN,
2nd. Board Registration,
Wake Co.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WARREN.

On Tuesday the 26th instant, the Conservative party of Warren Co. met in Convention at Warrenton, for the purpose of appointing delegates to a Convention of the Conservative party of North Carolina to be held in Raleigh on the 11th of Dec., next. The meeting was called to order by the election of Mr. Thomas A. Montgomery as Chairman, and Mr. Charles W. Spruill as Secretary.

Mr. Montgomery explained the objects of the meeting in a few pertinent remarks, after which Col. William A. Jenkins was called on, and addressed the meeting in a very able speech, which was listened to with marked attention by all present. At the conclusion of Col. Jenkins' speech, it was moved by Maj. B. D. Williams that the Chairman appoint two delegates from each Captain's District in the County. This motion being seconded and carried, the following delegates were appointed.

Warrenton—Col. W. A. Jenkins, Maj. B. D. Williams.
Nutbush—Dr. Wm. J. Hawkins, Leonard Henderson.
Smith Creek—Weldon N. Edwards, James H. Mayfield.
Hawtree—Gid. W. Nicholson, Z. M. P. Cole.
Sandy Creek—Peter R. Davis, Alex. L. Stead.
River—Nath Nicholson, Jno. E. Boyd.
Grove Hill—Thos. P. Pitchford, Henry Harriss.
Judkins—Jno. W. Riggan, Austin Plummer.
Shocco—Col. Wharton J. Green, Dr. Frank Patterson.
Six. Pound—Maj. W. C. Drake, Jno. M. Brame.

On motion of Col. W. A. Jenkins, the names of the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list of delegates.

Moved by Maj. B. D. Williams that the Warrenton Courier and Indicator, and all other papers in the State favorable to the Conservative cause, be requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting; after which the meeting adjourned.

THOS. W. MONTGOMERY, Ch'n.
CHARLES W. SPRUILL, Sec't'y.

The National Intelligencer says of Thad. Stevens, 'The like of him is nowhere to be found in history. He is old, but there is no infancy in his age. We doubt if he ever was a child at all. He was once young, but he was old Thad. Stevens even then, as all his early associates and neighbors will testify.'

The Radical papers say the Southern negroes have deposited in savings banks, during the past year, eight millions of dollars. Then it isn't necessary to tax the whites fifteen millions more to support the Freedmen's Bureau for their benefit.—Boston Post.

Alexander H. Stephens's work on the Causes of the War will be published during the first part of December.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, BUNCOMBE COUNTY.

In Equity, Fall Term, 1867.

William J. Brown, John E. Brown vs. Margaret Latimer and others.

Petition to perfect the Records of this Court, made in the case of the petition of Margaret Latimer and others, filed at Spring Term, 1848, which have been destroyed by fire, and praying the Court to substitute a certified copy thereof in place of the original, and enroll the same.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendants, Margaret Latimer and Elizabeth Latimer, heirs at law of George Latimer, deceased; John R. Latimer, Mary R. Latimer and Henry Latimer, heirs at law of Henry Latimer, deceased; James Campbell and wife Margaret, Mathias Nead and wife Mary, Samuel Van Trip and wife Mary, James Poe and John Poe, heirs at law of Elizabeth Poe, deceased; John M. Dale, Edward C. Dale, George C. Read and wife Elizabeth, and Elizabeth D. Pettet, Richard D. Pettet and Sarah Pettet, heirs at law of Susan M. Pettet, and Thomas M. Pettet, heir at law of Richard Dale, are non-residents of this State: It is therefore ordered by the Court, that publication be made for six successive weeks in the Weekly Sentinel, published in the City of Raleigh, requiring the said defendants to appear at the next term of this Court, to be held at the Court House in Asheville on the 7th Monday after the 4th Monday in April next, and show cause why the prayers of the petitioners shall not be granted.

Witness W. M. HARDY, Clerk of our said Court, at office in Asheville, the 7th Monday after the 4th Monday in September, A. D. 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The annual meeting of the Trustees of the University will be held in this City, on the 17th prox., at which time a full Faculty will be elected. See the announcement of the Secretary of the Board.

Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern: Everything in the Mechanical and Agricultural line.

Rock Spring Academy, Orange County: An excellent institution, under the management of H. M. Cates, A. B., Principal. See announcement.

Diamond Ring Lost: The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the store of L. E. Hearit.

Flour, Meal and Corn: L. W. Peck, Grocer and Commission Merchant.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—We are requested to state that Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, of Warrenton, N. C., will preach at the Baptist Church, to morrow (Sunday) morning and night.

The anniversary exercises of the Youth's Sunday School and Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will take place in the afternoon, at three o'clock, in the Church. Several interesting addresses may be expected and all who attend will doubtless be much interested.

THE THESPIANS.—This amateur Theatrical corps gave their first representation, last evening, before a large and select audience, in Tucker Hall. We feel it to be due to the efforts and labors of the young gentlemen composing the Association, to give their debut a more extended notice than it lies in our power to make this morning, and we defer it accordingly until our next. It is sufficient, for the present, to say that the exhibition was every way most creditable. The rendition was good, the conception of character very fine, considering all the circumstances, and all the appliances of costume and scenery appropriate and tasteful. They gave the public a pleasant evening, which was highly appreciated.

THANKSGIVING.—Divine services were held in this City, at the various Churches, on Thursday, and, as a general rule, all secular business was suspended.

There are many things for which, as a people and as individuals, we of the South have just cause to be thankful, and it is proper, in view of these, that we should have made public expression of our gratitude. We should be grateful for the fruits of the earth,—that our lives have been preserved,—for all of domestic comforts that are left us—that we still maintain, as a people, a record of unsullied honor, and that we have nothing to be ashamed of in the past. But in view of our national troubles and general situation,—the oppressions, discouragements and humiliations to which we are subject,—the gloomy present and the unpropitious future,—the wreck of civil liberty and of private interests,—the day might have been, perhaps, more appropriately observed as one of fasting and prayer, to propitiate the favor of Heaven and move the Almighty to change the hearts of those who so grievously afflict us.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Companies No. 1 and No. 2, and the Bucket Company, of our City Fire Department, were out on parade on Thursday afternoon, and really presented quite an imposing appearance. We are pleased to see the members of the Companies taking so much interest in their duties. They have all provided themselves with an appropriate and striking uniform, and manifest, every way, a commendable pride in the proper organization of the Department. Such a spirit deserves a prompt recognition and appreciation on the part of the municipal authorities. If the financial condition of the City will not justify the purchase of better and more improved engines, the Companies should at least be supplied with a sufficient quantity of hose, in order to enable them to avail themselves of our scanty water facilities. The failure to improve these facilities and furnish superior apparatus and equipments, however considerable may appear the expense, is of the "penny wise, pound foolish" policy. Give the Companies these, and we will wager that every member of them will do his whole duty.

PERSONAL.—The two sons of the late Senator Douglas, by his first wife, Miss Martin, of Rockingham Co., in this State, were in this City, on Thursday.

FOREPAUGH'S Circus has abandoned its Southern tour, and, consequently, will not visit this City. Glad to hear it.

BLAIR, of the "Yarborough," has been entertaining his numerous guests, for the past few days, in princely style. We hear the praises of his house and cuisine in every quarter. His dinner on "Thanksgiving Day" was sumptuous in the extreme. Every man in this world has his aptitudes, and Blair's great specialty is "how to keep a Hotel."

BINGHAM, the superannuated old incendiary, who is the leading spirit of hate and discord, in the Alabama Negro Convention, was many years ago a school master in this City and taught at the old Raleigh Academy. Many of our older citizens will doubtless remember him. He is no connection of the worthy and excellent family of Binghams, in this State, who have so long been ediucators of youth.

STATE NEWS.

——At a recent meeting of the Conservatives of Buncombe, Col. W. M. Corke, R. M. Stokes and the Hon. A. S. Merrimon were appointed delegates to the contemplated Conservative State Convention.

——On Friday of last week, Samuel Elliott, an old citizen of Jones county, was shot, while on the main road on Island Creek. It is supposed to be the work of two negroes, as two were seen near the scene of the murder a short while before it was committed, armed with muskets or shot guns. Mr. Elliot was struck with two shots, one in the right knee and one in the hip, and lingered but a few hours.

——The Twentieth Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad was held in Wilmington on the 27th. W. H. Giles, Esq., was elected President for the ensuing year, vice H. M. Drane, Esq. Messrs. O. G. Parsley, H. Nutt, J. E. Gregg, Jno. Dawson, D. S. Gowan, Richard Bradley, J. G. Burr, J. L. Bartlett, C. Graham and A. J. DeRosset were chosen as Directors.

——The Thirty first Session of the N. C. Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, commenced in Wilmington on Wednesday,—Bishop Doggett presiding. Dr. Craven, of Trinity, was elected Secretary. The Journal furnishes the following abstract of the more important proceedings on the first day:

"Rev. Dr. Reid moved that the Committee on Finance be instructed to inquire into the expediency of reporting a plan for the consolidation of all collections. Carried.

On motion, a Committee on Temperance, composed of the following delegates, was appointed: Revs. H. T. Hudson, A. R. Raven, and Frank H. Wood.

Question 15th., referring to the examination of ministerial character, was then taken up.

Considerable discussion ensued regarding the form prescribed for the report of the operations of ministers during the year, which occupied much time.

A motion was offered by Rev. R. S. Moran, which was carried, to the effect that the written report be dispensed with, and that when the names of delegates were called, the ministers should answer and report verbally.

A communication from the Southern Methodist Publishing House, located at Nashville, Tenn., was read by direction of the Bishop, and, on motion, referred to the Committee on Periodicals.

[During the war this Publishing House was almost completely demolished. It is gratifying to note that its condition now, as shown in the communication, is quite flourishing, and there are abundant evidences that prosperity awaits its operations in future.]

——The State Council of the Friends of Temperance, recently in session at Wilmington, has adjourned. Gen. R. B. Vance, Maj. D. S. Hill, R. H. Whitaker, Rev. J. N. Andrews and J. A. Cunninggim were elected delegates to the Supreme Council. The next meeting of the State Council will be held in Raleigh, on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in December, 1868.

MR. DAVIS.

The trial of this patient and long-suffering gentleman is again deferred, and now fixed for the fourth Wednesday in March, when, if the Chief Justice is not present in the court here, his counsel will ask a change of venue, of which purpose they yesterday gave notice to the representatives of the Government. We refer the reader to the ful report of the proceedings before the court in the Dispatch this morning.

It is plain that Judge Chase, for some reason or other, has not been willing to sit upon Mr. Davis's trial—very probably, as has been for some time suggested, because he would be compelled to face a ventilation of his own State Rights views, fully set forth at a former day, and whose legitimate deductions would inevitably lead to the acquittal of Mr. Davis.

The Government is clearly determined that Mr. Davis shall not be tried by Judge Underwood. Even Mr. Speed, who was radical enough for any one, could not consent that the country should be disgraced by submitting the case of the distinguished accused to such a miserable incompetent as the Judge of this circuit; and should Judge Chase, for whatever reason, still dodge the trial next spring, we have no doubt that the Government will either discharge the accused or allow the cause to be removed to another circuit.

But the course far more honorable to the Government would be its dismissal. The defendant has borne his sufferings nobly.—He is entitled by every consideration of personal fame, distinguished services to the Federal Government itself—bearing as he does the scars received in its defence, and still suffering from the effects of long service in the army and the councils of the Republic—and by his long imprisonment and the delay of the Government in bringing on his trial, to immunity from further prosecution. His case is a signal instance of prosecution and profouged punishment without trial.—No man, however humble, should be thus kept in anxiety, thus debarred the privileges of a freeman before conviction. The distinguished defendant, stripped of fortune by the events of the war, has cares and responsibilities of a serious and embarrassing nature, and the commonest principles of justice and humanity demand that he should be discharged, that he may, untrammelled, proceed with what of energy and force may be left him now to make as smooth and gentle as possible the declining way of age for the brief journey that remains before him.

We can scarcely believe, after his punishments received already, that he will be brought to trial; and we may hope that the Government will terminate the cause when next called. Even the extreme Radicals have demanded that the prosecution be abandoned.—Rich. Dispatch

Unless General Grant objects, it is said General Hancock will reinstate some of the State officials that have been removed.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29, P. M.

Senate.—A memorial from Delaware was presented favoring equal suffrage.

Mr. Chandler offered a resolution declaring strict neutrality in the pending quarrel between Abyssinia and England. Mr. Sumner objected, and the resolution lies over.

Mr. Morrill introduced a bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem the legal tender notes with coin, and directing him to sell each year, after paying the interest on the debt, any gold in the Treasury over $75,000,000, receiving in pay National Bank notes and compound interest notes, and requiring all National Banks which have not equal to 20 per cent. of their capital in specie, to hold interests on their bonds off and after July 1st, 1869. They shall pay their notes in coin of five dollars and under, larger denominations in coin or legal tender. Banks failing to comply with these conditions forfeit their charters, the Treasurer having authority to organize other National Banks of equal capital in their stead.

Mr. Morrill stated that he would press the bill at an early day, saying that Congress must grapple the financial difficulties at once, and ascertain the true solution of the financial difficulties.

The Senate confirmed Horace Greely as Minister to Austria, Gen. Capron, Agricultural Commissioner, and A. C. Hunt Governor of Colorado.

A joint meeting of Democrats and Republicans is called at Faneuil Hall, Boston, opposing impeachment.

The count shows that there are thirty majority against the majority report on impeachment. The impression prevails that Wilson's report will be adopted. There is a strong disposition on the part of the Democrats to debate the matter in order to ventilate, it is claimed, the absurdities of both Wilson's and Boutwell's report.

Dunbar, of New York, who was before the Senate, under arrest for contempt, testified to-day. If his testimony is believed, high Treasury officers are awkwardly situated.

RICHMOND RADICALS.

RICHMOND, Nov. 29, P. M.

This afternoon, a meeting of the colored Republicans was held at the Capitol park at which resolutions were adopted, declaring that, in view of the efforts of the Conservatives to intimidate the colored vote, Hon. John Minor Botts, Gov Pierpoint, Franklin Stearns, and others, be requested to call a State Convention of white Republicans to assist and direct the colored people in carrying the election for the ratification of the Constitution.

The two colored delegates from this City to the Convention were present and joined in the request.

Addresses were made urging the necessity of having the aid of the white Republicans in the coming election.

Lying, as a Fine Art, is carefully studied by many of the native born patriots, who were Confederates during the war and loyalists on its termination. An illustration of this has recently been furnished in North Carolina, where the Sheriff of Caswell county was tried by a Military Commission for having, after the manner of Louis the XI., confined a devoted Union man in an iron cage. The accused plead "not guilty" to the charge and specifications, and the court gave him acquittal, thus pronouncing them a malicious falsehood.—Norfolk Journal.

A clergyman recently sent to a Selma (Ga.) newspaper a notice that he would preach a discourse on "Selma's Expense Account for Sin." By a compositor's blunder Sin was changed into Tin, and the announcement of that metal as the subject of a religious discourse excited such interest and curiosity that when Sunday evening came the church was crammed, and hundreds were turned away who could not find standing room inside.

GEN. LEE AND MR. DAVIS.—The Richmond Examiner says that Mr. Davis and Gen. R. E. Lee met on Monday night, for the first time since the war, in Judge Ould's parlor. The meeting was very cordial, and half an hour was spent in pleasant conversation. Gen. Lee and sons have taken rooms at the Exchange Hotel.

A "tin" wedding was lately observed in Gloucester after a rather unusual manner. The wife eloped with a young fellow, taking with her all the "tin" she had saved in ten years. The discovery of her absence closed the festivities.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

HAS PAID ANOTHER LOSS IN THIS DEPARTMENT ON THE 7TH NOV., 1867, to the widow of the late Castine Doscher, of Wilmington, N. C. Policy No. 28,650, for $5,000. This Company has done more in the last two years for the citizens of the State than any other Company.

DIED IN 1866 AND 1867, AND POLICIES PAID AT THE OFFICE IN RALEIGH:

Justice Kinsey, of Raleigh,	$ 5,000
J. E. Weeks, Elizabeth City,	5,000
T. J. Garner, Weldon,	3,000
S. B. Turnage, Kinston,	10,000
J. F. Sanders, Smithfield,	5,000
Castine Doscher, Wilmington,	5,000

A very serious question for a Husband and Father to ask himself, is, Should I be taken away to-morrow, would my family be provided for as I wish them to be? The Ætna Company is one of the solid institutions of this country, and by taking a Policy here you provide a certainty.

That which has made this Company such a favorite and so popular, is the low rate and prompt payment of all demands.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1867.

THE HOUR OF DEATH.

BY MRS. HEMANS.

Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, oh, Death!

Day is for mortal care,
Eve for glad meetings round the joyous hearth,
Night for the dreams of sleep, the voice of prayer;
But all for thee, thou mightiest of the earth

The banquet hath its hour,
It feverish hour of mirth, and song, and wine:
There comes a day for grief's overwhelming power,
A time for softer tears—but all are thine.

Youth and the opening rose
May look like things too glorious for decay,
And smile at thee; but thou art not of those
That wait the ripened bloom to seize their prey.

Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, oh Death!

We know when moons shall wane,
When summer birds from far shall cross the sea,
When autumn's hue shall tinge the golden grain;
But who shall teach us when to look for thee?

Is it when spring's first gale
Comes forth to whisper where the violets lie?
Is it when roses in our paths grow pale?
They have one season—all are ours to die!

Thou art where billows foam,
Thou art where music melts upon the air;
Thou art around us in our peaceful home,
And the world calls us forth—and thou art there.

Thou art where friend meets friend,
Beneath the shadow of the elm to rest;
Thou art where foe meets foe and trumpets rend
The skies, and swords beat down the princely crest.

Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath,
And stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, oh, Death!

RALEIGH, N. C.,
Nov. 20, 1867.

A CREDITORS' BILL WAS FILED IN THE Court of Equity of Wake County, against the NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, and at the last term of the said Court, a decree was made, appointing the Receiver of all the assets of the said Company; and in pursuance of said decree, notice is hereby given to all the creditors of said Company, who are willing to contribute to the expenses of said suit, to make known their intention on or before the FOURTH MONDAY IN MARCH, 1868, and prove their claims before the subscriber; otherwise they will be excluded from all sharing in the distribution of the assets of the Company.
Those who have already proved their claims need not furnish additional proof but must signify their intention to become parties to the said suit, if they desire to do so.
Notice is also given to all persons indebted to the Company, by assessment as heretofore noticed, to make payment without delay, or their claims under the decree of the Court will be put in suit.

TO SHIPPERS.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT CARRY TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,
THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD. UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY
SAY VIA R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State last year Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come. Therefore (as we can and will give more dispatch to shippers' goods) we will carry them as low as any other Line.
NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight ROUTE,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are requested so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!
To Insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely direct your consignors to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va. or City Point, Va. via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:
Merchants' & Miner's Line, east of Central Wharf, E. Sampson, agent.

FROM NEW YORK:

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,
Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.
BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.
The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.
The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."
THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.
It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the burning and water damage caused by large Engines.
You can effect insurance on your property
At Lower Rates,
if protected by the Extinguisher.
The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.
No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.
The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
Send for a Circular.
